

SECRET

18 January 1982

To: [] O/Comptroller

25X1

SUBJECT: History of Office of Executive Director-Comptroller []

25X1

1. Attached is a brief chronology of events relating to the Office of Executive Director-Comptroller, prepared by the History Staff in response to your telephone request. Our holdings do not contain a full history of the office. []

25X1

2. A description of how the office functioned in its later years can be found in Colby's book Honorable Men, which contains a chapter (pp. 289-328) on his tenure as Executive Director-Comptroller. []

25X1

[]

25X1

Deputy Chief, DCI/HS

Distribution:

0-adse
1-C/DCI/HS
1-DC/DCI/HS
1-HS Chrono

[]

25X1

SECRET

SECRET

Chronology of Events Relating to Office of Executive Director-Comptroller

29 Nov 1961 McCone becomes DCI.

5 Dec 1961 McCone establishes study group on organization of the Agency, chaired by Kirkpatrick, then IG.

Feb-Mar 1962 A number of changes in key personnel--DDCI, DDP, DDI, DDR.

1 Apr 1962 Office of General Counsel, Office of Legislative Counsel, Office of Comptroller moved to Office of DCI. Bross becomes Comptroller.

10 Apr 1962 Kirkpatrick named to new position of Executive Director.

9 Sep 1963 Bross appointed to new position of Deputy to DCI for National Intelligence Programs Evaluation.

18 Nov 1963 Executive Director and Comptroller functions merged under Kirkpatrick.

28 Apr 1965 Raborn replaces McCone as DCI.

May-Jun 1965 A number of changes in key personnel--DDCI, DDP, DDI, DDS&T.

5 July 1965 Kirkpatrick resigns as Executive Director-Comptroller (stays on through the summer to work on Agency's 15-year plan)
White becomes Executive Director-Comptroller.
(Had been DDS)

1 July 1966 Helms replaces Raborn as DCI.

29 Feb 1972 White retires; succeeded by Colby.

2 Feb 1973 Schlesinger replaces Helms as DCI.

14 Feb 1973 Colby becomes DDP; Office of Executive Director-Comptroller abolished. Its activities assumed by Executive Secretary and CIA Management Committee.

SECRET